MESSAGE TO: Andrew Young

“Hey, Andrew, it’s Fred Baron. Uh, just wanted to give you an update on our dear friend Jaya, Rielle, whatever you wanna call her. We have found a house that she’s happy with and it’s very, uh, uh, affordable and, uh, the best news is: I think we can get her moved in on Tuesday. It’s a furnished house, so we’re in good shape on the furniture issue. So, uh, I think we’ve missed our deadline by two days but, uh, it’s pretty damn close. Uh, just wanted to pass that along to you. In talking to the real estate agent that’s handling that particular property, or maybe it was the owner, she, uh, told them her background was that she came from the East Coast, from New York, and had been living with you all and you are her step-, uh, brother. So if there’s a call to you about Jaya, uh, you’re her stepbrother. But, uh, I’m working on the lease deal right now and we expect to have her moved in on Tuesday. So that’s a little bit of good news. I’ve got a call into Matthew Nelson and we’re tryin’ to work out a time and place for you and our friend to meet. Take care. Have a good weekend. Bye.”
